

The Edward A. Dixon Gallery is looking to feature student artists in:

VISIONS

A BETTER WORLD IS POSSIBLE.

a student exhibition designed by Sarah Behnke

Proposals due March 10

any medium accepted
contact behnkes1@udayton.edu to submit

The Visions Exhibition Call for Art

Theme

The theme for the exhibition is: A better world is possible.

What do you want our future to look like? What does it feel like? What parts of your identity flourish? What parts cease to exist?

What that future will look like is what we make it, and our imagination of it is the blueprint.

Requirements

Must be a college student, at least 18 years old
Preference for students in Dayton

Submission

To submit your proposal: please send a letter of interest via email to Sarah Behnke, Gallery Assistant Intern, behnkes1@udayton.edu

1. Please include Name, Address, Phone, Email Address, and Website and/or social pages (optional)

2. A Letter of Interest expressing your interest in the project, how your art would relate to the theme, and your inspiration for the work (approx. 250 words)

3. 1-10 images of current work to be submitted (as JPG) and/or description (approx. 150 words) of what you intend to make for the exhibition

For any questions, please contact behnkes1@udayton.edu

Artists will have the option to put their work up for sale at the gallery if they choose. Gallery commission fees have been retracted for this exhibition, so the artist will receive 100% of the profit if sold.

Opening reception will take place on April 7.

About the gallery: <https://eadgallery.com/about/>

edward a. dixon gallery